

Students should be aware that licensure and certification requirements vary from state to state and are subject to change based on the state licensing board. Licensing agencies or boards also may have requirements in addition to an earned degree. Bryan College has made the following determinations regarding whether or not Bryan's Baccalaureate Education programs meet the licensure and certification requirements for each US state or territory. Bryan College highly recommends that students who are not Tennessee residents or who plan to seek licensure or certification in a state other than Tennessee contact the appropriate licensing board to determine reciprocity and potential additional requirements. This chart will be reviewed and updated annually to determine any changes in requirements and reciprocity.

For additional information, prospective and current students should contact the Education Specialist in the Education Department with questions regarding a specific state or discipline specific licensure.
